Entry was gained by cutting the glass near the locks on the doors of the business places and a fourth break-in at Ranton's was foiled, although the glass on the door was marked by a glass cutter.

About six hundred dollars in cash was taken from the Sunrise Coffee Shop, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Waugh, but no report of loss has been ascertained from other places entered.

R.C.M. Police of Olds detachment are investigating.

A lovely party was held at the Westcott school last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rinehart and a short programme started the evening's entertainment. Mr. Jack Robertson's song, the open bar number, was thoroughly enjoyed, as it related the events and history of the Rineharts since they came to the district back in the horse and buggy days. The event of the evening was the presentation of Mr. Clarence Rinehart's first new car (the first in the vicinity) was related and certainly kept the crowd in laughter.

Little Linda Rinehart, the granddaughter of the honored couple, recited a short poem and this was followed by an instrumental by Mr. Norman Tuggle. A couple of vocal solos were then rendered by Mr. Robert Hughes and Mrs. Herbert Gjetten, completing the program. A dance was then held.

The dancing commenced and the music was supplied by Mr. Cliff Murphy, Mr. Norman Tuggle, Mr. Bill Tohms and Mr. Cliff Eckstrand. These gentlemen were accompanied by a new pianist, Mr. Eckstrand's sister-in-law, a visitor here.

Mr. Bill Weidner introduced some of the newest in the square dancing art, which was very much enjoyed by all the crowd.

After the lunch hour Mr. Chas. Tuggle, who was the emcee, the gathering, fittingly presented Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart with a purse of money as a parting gift from their friends and neighbors, and in turn the honored guests each thanked everyone for their kindness. The crowd then gathered around them and sang, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

In close of the evening Mr. Rinehart asked all those present to come and see them in Didsbury.

HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT REACHES RECORD TOTAL

Enrollment in Alberta schools is at a record high with a total of 173,969 students attending grades one to 12.

More than 78,000 students are attending schools in larger cities and towns and schools of independent jurisdiction not included in a school division. The remainder—totalling 95,889—are enrolled at divisional schools or at schools in rural towns and villages which have entered school divisions by agreement.

Total enrollment in the previous year was 167,790. Enrollment in cities and larger towns increased last year by about 17,500 students while rural school enrollment dropped by more than 9,000.

Farewell Party For Mr. and Mrs. E. Weber

On Monday, March 3, about 35 neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weber to honor them in the form of a farewell party.

The evening's program commenced with games arranged by Mrs. H. Folkman and the Webers followed the gathering with a few old tunes on the violin and guitar.

Taylor in Edmonton last week and asked that the Alberta Government assume responsibility for the two-mile road between Didsbury and the highway.

The delegation also asked the Minister of Highways to declare the road east from Didsbury to Three Hills a secondary highway.

The 2nd Troop Boy Scouts was favored last week with a visit from Mr. Paul Kruger, Field Commissioner for Central Alberta. This was the first visit the Troop has had from the office of the Scouts and it was felt a very worthwhile liaison was established with Headquarters.

Plans are already being made to invite Mr. Kruger back in the Spring.

The Commissioner led the Troop in their renewal of the promise to the new Queen and also made the presentation of several badges. Edward Oke received the coveted "B" cords which is only given to Scouts in good standing holding at least five proficiency badges. The Ambassador's Main Badge, Clarence Vautour obtained his Second Class Badge.

Train Hits Truck At South Railway Crossing

Once more a near catastrophe was averted at a Didsbury railway crossing last Friday when a truck was struck by a train on Friday morning, February 29.

The accident occurred at the south end of the Didsbury crossing. Roy Westfall was coming into town from the east, and he stalled the truck on the crossing just as the morning train was coasting into the station. Realizing his predicament Westfall jumped clear of the vehicle just before it was hit by the train, and while he suffered bruises and shock, his injuries were not serious.

The truck was almost a total wreck.

This is the second level crossing accident at Didsbury within a month, and one of several in the past few years. It is time that a proper grade system be installed on the two level railway crossings in Didsbury. Such a signal system has been recommended by the Board of Railway Commissioners.

Pop Truck Goes Into Ditch at Westcott Store

A little excitement was stirred up in the Westcott district last Friday when one of the big soft drink trucks from Calgary went into the ditch near the store with its load.

Mr. Don Rinehart of Calgary is visiting his relatives here at Westcott and Didsbury.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Bill Bogner was released from hospital last week and is recovering from burns at the home of his parents in Calgary.

There are more mumps around again, so we imagine you will be going through the district here or there. Raymond Vipond is now quite ill with them at his home, and other families are now in cases in the home, while new cases are coming on every day.

She was the recipient of many lovely gifts, flowers and cards from her family here and from those residing in B.C. There were greetings from old friends and neighbors of the Gardfield district and Chilliwack, B.C., where Mrs. Goetjen resided before coming to Didsbury.

Such Was Life For The Early Doctors

Elias Shantz, while talking to the Sunday School in 1899, collapsed with a stroke. There was no doctor near and the system was in the east of Olds, where Mr. McIntyre, a marine doctor, had homesteaded as a means of retirement. He had and license at first, but was generous enough to help in case of need. It was necessary to have a doctor's certificate. To call him meant 13 miles of ankle deep mud going as the roads had been plowed, the trails fenced off, and it had rained almost continuously for seven weeks during part of July and all of August—a seven hour mud trip with a good saddle horse. Another seven hour trip for the doctor in his hook-bow.

The first resident doctor in Didsbury was Dr. Brody. He was followed by Dr. Reid and Dr. Gaddes, and they also had the drug store. Two years later Dr. Weart opened up for practice. When the first World War called for medical recruits the said three enlisted and they were replaced by Dr. Chad and Dr. Evans. In this time bridges and culverts were still far apart and only a few rural phones extended into the country.

NOTES

W.K. Snyder,
Field Supervisor

During the week just passed we held a meeting at Rugby, Eagle Hill, Mayton and Westerdale. With the exception of Rugby where the attendance was rather small, the attendance and interest exceeded our expectations. We usually find that the progressive type of farmer who wants to increase his knowledge and keep up to date on the latest developments in the field of agriculture come out to this type of a meeting. The Department of Agriculture sets up the office of District Agriculturist, Home Economist and Field Supervisor to serve every phase of the farmers needs. An ever increasing number of people are becoming aware of the advantage of these services and are availing themselves of them. As years pass and our farm lands become older and more depleted it will become increasingly imperative that we put into practice the most efficient soil conservation and weed control methods. As food and population increases more food will be required and for us to be able to produce that from our resources, it will require careful and systematic management of our soil.

Prejudice Is Problem
In Human Relations

(Royal Bank News Letter)

Prejudice is our number one problem in human relations. It is prejudice that closes our minds to the rush and knowledge which would enable us to work together in friendship, vote with intelligence, worship and understanding, and avoid international disputes.

In one of Aesop's Fables he tells how Jupiter, in a mischievous mood made mankind a present of spectacles. Every man had a pair, but they did not represent objects to all mankind alike. One pair was purple, another blue; one white and another black; some were red, green and yellow. "However, notwithstanding this diversity," says Aesop, "every man was charmed with his own, believing it the best, and enjoyed in opinion all the satisfaction of the truth."

Many civilizations in the world at different times and places have had widely different patterns of behaviour. Almost anything in social and personal life which we now deplore was somewhere and at some time acceptable. Out of those practices, which were right and proper in their age, have come today's cultures. A respect for these traditions of others will lead to understanding and avoid prejudice.

All of us are entitled to our own petty prejudices. Most of us have been biased against books we were told we should read, though later we liked them. Many business men are prejudiced against people who sign letters "dictated but not read." Elevator operators are prejudiced against people who press elevator buttons needlessly; we all are prejudiced against people who stride imperiously through revolving doors.

That is not the kind of prejudice this letter is about. The hurtful prejudices are the mental fixations of the 100-per-centers, people who won't admit you have a side to your case, and demand that you either agree wholly with their opinions, or disagree.

It may be true that the more ignorant a man is, the more positive he is in his opinion, and the more belligerently inclined to look up on your doubt of his statements as a sin against him.

Intelligently alive people have no such dissolutions. They know that absolute certainty is regarded by scientists as an impossibility, and scientists, of all people, have the opportunity to check and re-check their findings.

Mistakes occur in the thought of all living people. In the Provincial Museum in Toronto there is a wizened caveman who hasn't made a mistake for several thousand years, ever since he curled up in his grass mat and went to sleep. The only people who are never mistaken are dead.

We do ourselves an injury by killing part of our minds when we reject contradiction, refuse to hear the other side of the story, or oppose opinions without learning the facts. We may be persons who think that new truths may have been desirable once, but that we have had enough of them now; we may be addicted to attending committee meetings devoted to keeping things as they are; or we may be, as Stefan Zweig said of a famous clergyman: fundamentally honest and straightforward, but wearing blinkers; one of those persons for whom only their own truth is true, only their own virtue virtuous, only their own Christianity Christian."

The only Mormon Temple in the British Empire is at Cardston, Alta.

CANADA IS FOURTH
RANKING WORLD TRADER

Despite her relatively small population, Canada is one of the world's major trading nations and is fourth ranking exporter and importer. Yet this country has only 0.6 per cent of the world's population. For some years previous to 1951 Canada ranked third in exports as well as imports. Then the Canadian totals were only slightly more than those of France. But in 1951 the gap between the trade in both countries widened in favor of France, although the trade of both continued to increase considerably. Canada stands first in exports and imports per capita when compared with the ten major trading countries. Belgium, which is second, is still far behind Canada. The per capita trade of Canada is three times as great as that of the United States. In the year ending September, 1951, Canadian per capita foreign trade, including both exports and imports, was $536, whereas that of the U.S. for the same period was $173. Although the U.S. is the most important country in the world trade, it cannot be said that international trade is of similar importance to the United States economy.

Freight rates in Canada, despite the long hauls through unsettled country, are among the lowest in the world.

TRAIL BLAZING!

Read what Mr. E. C. Halub of Dawson Creek, B.C. has to say about his Hillman Minx following a 4,000 mile trip over the tough Alaska Highway—including 100 miles in a raging blizzard.

"I went from Edmonton, Alta., to Fairbanks, Alaska and back—4,016 miles—without so much as a flat tire, or mechanical trouble.

"On my return, I confronted a blizzard raging across country, swirling, blinding snow, through which I had to break trail for over 100 miles.

"I could continue on and on, sir, but in short, what I would like to convey to you is, my admiration for this wonderful, economical, reliable means of transportation."

Clay Suitable For Brick Making Available Here

According to the Alberta Newsletter, issued monthly by the Industrial Development Board of Alberta, the Didsbury district is among the many places in Alberta where suitable brick clay is obtainable. This is found at Didsbury in the "Paskapoo" shales which would make fine bricks. Some shale here contains enough lime to burn a cream colour," says the report.

Deposits of low grade clays suitable for the manufacture of common brick, hollow tile, and drain tile are plentiful in Alberta.

These clays may be shales belonging to older rock formations of lower water origin as Kootenay, Blairmore, Belly River, Edmonton and Paskapoo; or they may be obtained from river terraces or glacial lakes in which case they are unconsolidated and are of fairly recent deposition. The use of these low grade clays was widespread 25 or more years ago, but the number of manufacturing plants has declined over the years to eight, of which five are located in Medicine Hat and Redcliff.

The clay manufacturing industry has centred in Medicine Hat and Redcliff because of the cheapness and convenience of natural gas. However, the discovery of many other gas fields throughout Alberta suggests the possibility of the opening of new plants closer to market, should suitable clay be found in proximity to these gas fields.

While the report does not give the extent of the clay deposits in the Didsbury district, it is interesting to note that they are sufficient to warrant mention in the Alberta Newsletter.

ORE FOR JAPAN

Shipments of iron ore from British Columbia to Japan this year will reach a rate of around 130,000 tons of concentrate ore a month.

Already opened up is the ore body around Quinsam Lake on the east coast of Vancouver Island. Some shipments have already been made, and a magnetic concentrator has been installed. Severe winter weather and snow conditions, however, interfered with the operation and it is only now getting going again.

ONLY CERTAIN THING ABOUT PRICES

The only certain thing about farm prices is that they can't remain as they are.

Canadian farmers can't expect to continue selling beef cattle at 30 cents a pound while Argentine and Australia are selling dressed beef for half that price.

Canadian consumers can't expect to continue buying eggs and dairy products at prices that don't cover the cost of the feed consumed in producing them.

Excessively high prices are not an unmixed blessing and excessively low prices are not an unmixed evil to the farmers.

High prices create conditions that about lower prices, and the higher they go the harder they fall. And when this happens the farmers are generally ill prepared to take the jolt.

Similarly, low prices always lead to higher prices; and when this happens it finds the farmers in the humor to make the best use of their new prosperity.

Farmers should not attempt to control prices. They should study prices and profit by the lessons they teach.

When prices are high the farmers best policy is to use their prosperity to prepare for the slump that is sure to follow.

And when prices are low they should plan to profit by the revival that follows every depression.—The Rural Scene.

THEY LIKE OUR MONEY NOW

As a sign of the times, Canadian currency is not only being accepted in New York at par, but there are signs proclaiming "we want your Canadian money" in stores and hotels.

For incoming travellers, Manhattan's "polite" taxi drivers now even take a Canadian $2 bill without the baby-eyed stare reserved for inflated Chinese Nationalists and Confederate money.

Similar reports have been received from Buffalo, N.Y., the Canadian shopping centre, where the sudden desire for Canadian money since it was freed from exchange controls has been proclaimed on store window stickers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The proposition that much is still to be learned about the true nature of man will be presented Sunday in all Christian Science church services. In dealing with the subject, "Man," the Lesson-Sermon will make use of this declaration from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 258): "The human capacities are enlarged and perfected in proportion as humanity gains the true conception of man and God." Attention will also be directed to this exalted view from the gospel of St. John (1:12): "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

MELVIN NOTES

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clara Youngs of Saskatoon on the birth of a son, Robert Gordon.

A fire at the Lloyd Chandler home caused a bit of excitement last Friday morning. The kitchen shed was badly burned inside but the fire was put out before the rest of the house was damaged. The cause of the fire is not known, unless a spark fell as the ashes were carried out.

Mrs. Nelson and her father Mr. Ray of Carstairs visited at the Ross Youngs home on Monday. Mrs. Nelson leaves this week to return to her home at Blue River, B.C.

Miss Alice Foris of Edmonton is visiting this week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. G.A. Youngs.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Slim Goodwin (Maude Johnston) on the birth of a daughter, Colleen Frances. Mrs. Goodwin is now home but the baby is still in the incubator and we are glad to report, is gaining nicely.

The Melvin district extends sympathy to the Chandler family on the death of Lloyd's father in Didsbury on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Krebs and Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Dupont Jr. were Calgary visitors on Sunday when they also attended the hockey game.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sanderman of Calgary were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Krebs on Tuesday.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

May we remind the public of the Artist Recital to be held in the United Missionary Church on Friday evening of this week. Mr. G. Lyle Richardson, well known baritone, and Mr. John Wilson, talented pianist, will present numbers that all will appreciate.

Mr. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were guest speakers and singers in the Pastor United Missionary Church on Sunday. Rev. Harley Traub is pastor there.

The Community Choral Society will meet in the College Chapel each Thursday night at 8:30 p.m. from now on. This will accommodate the choirs represented in the society. The Society had a social evening after the practice last Thursday. Its social committee served a delicious lunch after the "getting acquainted" program was over. Mrs. Evans had the unique privilege of naming all the persons present, and succeeded in a very admiral fashion. Miss Rita Sawatzky gave reading entitled "Mary had a Little Lamb." We understand that poem better now. Mr. John Wilson ably rendered musical selections, much to the delight of his audience.

Miss Grace Snyder spent the week end with friends in the country. Mrs. M. A. Finlay of Edmonton visited the College on Friday and Saturday. She is a member of the Board of Directors and has been in close contact with the work of the College since its inception.

Mr. Lloyd Anderson, Miss Kay Atkinson and Lois Suder are taking their places in the school family again. They were on the sick list for some days.

Mr. Hoskins and several of the young men spent Thursday getting out lumber for the new church in Calgary. Friends from Acadia Valley and Edmonton also assisted in the work, and it seems that a large crew that has been working has been able to get out the amount needed. Where people have a mind to work things are really accomplished.

The month of March and April will present a number of interesting programs for the public. We shall endeavor to keep you advised in advance as to these events.

which had no gravelled roads. Calls for doctors in the early days were nothing pleasant — irregular meals and long hours between naps. It meant very often a doctor had to be hired. Harry Seibel is still here to tell us how Dr. Reid would tell him to get the old buckskins to the cutter and put the lines to them while he turned into the cutter to get a few hours sleep enroute to answer a distant call (the bumpy road, however, did not give him much chance to sleep) from twenty to twenty-five miles into the open prairie or sticks.

Harry Levagood can also tell you of some of the trips with Dr. Weart. The Doctor himself related this experience: Getting a call from Sunnyslope, and in his mind there was only one Sunnyslope, twenty-six miles east of Didsbury. However, the call came from Sunnyslope School District south of Westcott; that was the only Sunnyslope the patient knew of. After driving five hours the Doctor could not find any one by the name given him so he decided to return home (another five hour trip). In the meantime repeated calls came in from the patient, leading Mrs. Weart with torturing anxiety as to what could have happened to the Doctor. Finally upon his arriving home the matter was explained, but with not too much cheer when he was informed of another twenty-eight mile trip before the conclusion of the call.

Henry Roeth and Dr. Evans have both passed on so their joy rides will soon be forgotten.

A shovel and an axe were always supplementary tools to the doctor's medical kit. Sometimes a relay of horses had to be made, or the trip had to be finished with a saddle horse. Yes, a mile or two on foot was the answer to the situation in many cases.

Nor is Doctor Clark here to tell us of some of his snow-shovelling and mud digging experiences. Dr. Clark deserves the credit for getting the new hospital in Didsbury under way.

When you think of the great western area and of the many sacrificing experiences of the doctors all over this country one feels like saying, "hats off to them, those great pioneers."

During the last few decades a great change has been wrought. Community hospitals have come into being with facilities and equipment, and nursing staffs to man them, creating a sense of security not known before. Great credit is due to the governments, municipal and local councils, hospital boards, managing and nursing staffs, and the community in general.

Didsbury may well be proud of its hospital. Equipment and facilities equal those of towns its size and larger. A thousand amp. X-ray will disclose your interior. Operations can be done successfully and our medical staff is equal to the occasion unless very special cases turn up. The laundry and kitchen need no apology when under inspection. Food is well in keeping with hospital regulations and unless your appetite calls for a double header there is no lack of calories offered. The management and nursing staff soon make you feel that you are more than a number in a ward. The entire staff including the janitor displays the spirit of unity and co-operation in building up and maintaining a noticeable friendliness for the benefit of the patients.

You have noticed in the Didsbury Pioneer a great number of thankful expressions to the doctors and nurses and friends for the kindness shown during their stay in the hospital.

Patients come in at all hours. Some have broken limbs and are there from five to six weeks, yet the nurses must always show an athletic performance. Others moan and groan and cough and sometimes an unmodified loud speaker break out to add variety to the tuneless noises given voluntarily; yet the nurses day after day must be congenial, cheerful and useful, ready to answer the buzzer from any of the four points of the compass.

How many doctors would it take to serve the district under the old set-up? Today one doctor can attend to several patients by making one easy trip to the hospital. He further knows they are taken care of in his absence. Sanitation and proper care were not always at hand when patients were lying in poorly furnished shacks. Summing up from all standpoints I know of no better act on the part of the community than to brand the hospital as a practical expression of Christian democracy. With it I would like to tie in the local clinic as a forerunner and supplementary set up for the health of the community.

ing citizens. Finally a "Home for the Aged" would round out the expression of Christian Democracy in Didsbury. It can be done. P.S. If our hospital set-up were a thousand miles away and we had to spend a few hundred dollars to get to it, we would talk more about it, but because it is attached to our doorstep we take it all for granted.
